

About the author and the diagram

This tutorial file is for free use for anybody who is interested in jewellery. Any materials from this file are not to be sold in Internet or printed out for any commercial purpose. If you have any commercial interest in this diagram, write your suggestions to the authors at leta55555@hotmail.com

On another hand, the author grants the rights of using the patterns in this file to create your own beaded jewellery for commercial purposes. If you feel, that you can sell what you make using the patterns, go ahead!

Also, the author of this e-book happily grants the right to share this file with your friends for no charge. Get together and get creative!

Tutorial

This necklace is the first diagram for the level 1 beaders. It is as simple as it looks. Use any size beads, just count everything carefully.

I had this necklace for an evening dress when it was made of Czech faceted oval glass beads 2 or 3 mm, burgundy color.

---

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/magicjewellerybox/>

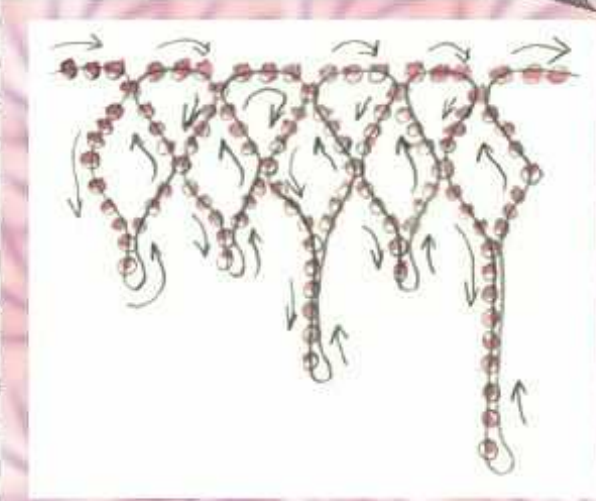

<http://nataliakhon.com>

subcon
only now, but in could not under could not management wmanagement was in have the qualtiehave the qualities and powers People needed People needed to have the symbol on an making a decipmaking a decision. Jewellery was the most non close to nature close to nature and it was their way to study creatures that shared the land, sky and water with The symbols weThe symbols were believed to have the qualities and powers of the originals. So, an animal that e still try ration abo inform nd of jewethis kind of jewel r, which dchelper, which does not let yo get to ar gave its see far gave its image for a symbol of vi

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/magicjewellerybox/>

<http://nataliakhon.com>